ZOILO DEVERATURDA

WEB DEVELOPER / VIRTUAL ASSISTANT

PROFILE

I'm a versatile creative with experience in video editing, cold calling, graphic design, and web development. I can produce high-quality videos, design eye-catching visuals, and communicate effectively to connect with audiences. Whether it's crafting engaging content, building brand identity, or handling sales calls, I bring a mix of creativity and strategy to my work.

In addition to my strengths in editing and design, I also have web development skills and can create simple, functional websites. This combination of technical and creative abilities allows me to adapt to different projects, whether it's marketing, branding, or digital media.

WORK EXPERIENCE

Seed Creatives

video editor for clients.

- "I create high-quality content including reels, recreational videos, promotional materials, and assessments, designed to engage audiences and promote brand awareness. My focus is on producing visually appealing and impactful content for various platforms and purposes."

Seed Creatives

graphic designer for clients.

- I create high-quality creative video listings and story listings for realtors using Canva and CapCut, helping showcase properties in an engaging and visually appealing way. My content is designed to attract potential buyers, highlight key property features, and enhance real estate marketing efforts through professional and compelling visuals.

Freelance

Web developer

- "I create high-quality, functional, and engaging websites designed to attract traffic and convert visitors into customers. I develop project websites for potential clients, offering free demo websites before securing a hire. Additionally, I specialize in building personal portfolio websites that effectively showcase skills, experience, and work."

Seed Creatives

as Real Estate Cold Caller

- Conducted Cold Calling campaigns using Mojo Sells to generate and qualify leads.
- Managed text messaging outreach with Batch Dialer, improving Lead Engagement and Follow-up efficiency.
